OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 13 December 1967

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Mr. Kaz Oshiki, Administrative Assistant to Representative Robert Kastenmeier (D., Wis.), called to report that all seemed to be ironed out between their office and Representative Laird's office and that apparently someone had put words in Representative Laird's mouth. See Journal of 8 December 1967.

4. [REDACTED] Met with Mrs. Margaret Pringle, Assistant to Representative Albert Watson (R., S. Car.), and discussed with her the Congressman's letter of 7 December relating to Bibliography of Yugoslav Educational Materials documents published by HEW. After discussion, Mrs. Pringle withdrew the Congressman's letter and indicated that no response would be expected from the Agency. She will contact the Department of Justice and HEW on this matter.
